York Man Arrested on Child Pornography Charge

(COLUMBIA, S.C.) South Carolina Attorney General Alan Wilson announced the arrest of Leroy Junior Moore (DOB: 06/19/1941) of York, S.C. on one (1) count involving the sexual exploitation of a minor. The York Police Department made the arrest, with the assistance of the S.C. Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Task Force.

On December 1, 2014, the York Police Department received a call about a suspicious person inside a vehicle at a store parking lot in the city of York. Officers found Moore with two laptop computers downloading photos and looking at images that appeared to show minors posed in a lewd manner. The Attorney General's ICAC Task Force was called to assist with the investigation.

On December 9, 2014, a search warrant was obtained to examine the computers and related devices. Video depicting sexual acts between adults and minors was discovered.

Moore was arrested and charged with one (1) count of Sexual Exploitation of a Minor, third degree (§16-15-410), a felony offense punishable by up to ten (10) years imprisonment. Bond was set at $10,000.

The case will be prosecuted by the Attorney General's Office.

Attorney General Wilson stressed all defendants are presumed innocent unless and until they are proven guilty in a court of law.
